Leigh Christou Accountants Celebrate Team Expansion

Coventry based Leigh Christou Chartered Certified Accountants are pleased to announce they have taken on four new members of staff as they look to expand and continually improve the services they offer to clients.

Joining the firm are Alan Robinson, Ruth McCutcheon, Sundeep Sangha and Concepcion Alfeiran.

33 year-old Ruth, a qualified Chartered Certified Accountant, joins the firm after 14 years in practice bringing a wealth of experience in statutory and specialist audits as well as tax, working with a variety of clients, including individuals and corporate clients.

Alan has a 32 year career in accountancy having started in the profession in 1982, he brings with him extensive practice background and works with a variety of corporate clients and specialist company secretarial areas.

20 year-old graduate trainee Sundeep joins the firm after graduating from the University of Wolverhampton in 2014 with a first class honors degree in accounting and finance and is currently studying for his ACCA qualification.

Concepcion joins us from a local practice and brings with her a very wide range of experience covering all aspects of accounting, tax, payroll and vat and is also studying for her ACCA qualification.

Chris Christou Senior partner at Leigh Christou, said: "We are pleased to welcome Alan, Ruth, Sundeep and Concepcion to the firm who will bring a depth of skills and expertise. The further additions to the team are a confirmation of our commitment to offer our clients the very best possible advice and levels of service, as the practice continues to expand"
