
Leigh Christou Global Awards 2016 - Corporate LiveWire 'Accountancy and Auditing' Winner

United Kingdom – 18th May 2016 - Today marks the highly anticipated publication of Corporate LiveWire's 2016 Global Awards' Winners Guide.

The Corporate LiveWire Global Awards recognise individuals and companies in the corporate finance sector that have demonstrated great achievements in the past 12 months. The Global Awards also identify those who have achieved something special in the finance arena, not only for their size in the global economy, but also for their involvement in financial developments around the world.

Jake Powers, Award Director of the 2016 Global Winners Guide is elated with the stature of this year's winners. Commenting on the vigorous level of competition this year, Jake said: "It is great to see how the financial sector is improving around the world. I can see many individuals and companies that have overcome the economic challenges to really stand on top. To win a Corporate LiveWire Global Award is an achievement to be proud of and I wish the winners continued success".

Like with all of the Corporate LiveWire Award winners, each individual and company had been put under great scrutiny by the Judging Panel at Corporate LiveWire, setting its sights firmly on the most client-focused and dedicated teams and individuals. Each winner was handpicked based on merit and has shown excellence, great performance and dedication over the course of the year.

For Information of users: This material is published for the information of clients. It provides only an overview of the regulations in force at the date of publication, and no action should be taken without consulting the detailed legislation or seeking professional advice. Therefore no responsibility for loss occasioned by any person acting or refraining from action as a result of the material can be accepted by the authors or the firm.